

“I have been serving communities throughout my career and am ready to serve in this leadership role with fiscal ingenuity, progress, and pride for the City of El Paso. Count on me to serve you well. I want to make my family and the constituents of District 8 proud.”

- Bettina Olivares, Candidate for City Council Representative, District 8

BORN & RAISED & BACK

Bettina was born and raised in South Central El Paso, attending Clardy, Henderson and Jefferson High School. She was lovingly raised by her mother and father, Christina Baray Olivares and Isidro Olivares. She left El Paso after high school to attend the University of Texas at Austin; through scholarships, financial aid and part-time jobs, she graduated with a Bachelors in Liberal Arts from the school of Government in 2010.

NO SUBSTITUTE FOR EXPERIENCE

Since graduation, Bettina has dedicated her career to public service, having over 8 years of experience in government, more than any other candidate in the District 8 race. Bettina worked for longtime Austin/San Antonio Congressman Lloyd Doggett and then, was employed by Texas Senator Carol Alvarado in her Houston District Office and at her State Capital office for the legislative sessions. She currently is the Legislative Aid/Chief of Staff for City Council Representative Cassandra Hernandez, District 3 and has worked for City Representative Alessandra Anello, District 2.
